Discover Your Childhood Vows, Change Your Life!

In Loving Memory of David William Sohn

The creator of the Body Memory Process, David William Sohn passed away in late 2019 from natural causes. David was a loving husband and father and deeply believed in the ability of people to heal themselves of anything and create a joyful, fulfilling, and prosperous life. His wife and children have been recovering for the past year, relocating to Alabama where David lived when he met his wife-to-be in 1994. David's wife Kathi "Kat" Sohn is now continuing to grow and promote David's powerful work as widely as possible.
